-A good joke is told on Judge Hammond, of our United States district court, who was at Paducah, Kentucky, holding court some few days since. A case came up for trial before him, wherein a mandamus was asked for against the city of Paducah to enforce the ry and collection of certain taxes. The dendant's counsel in the case expressed the greatest willingness to go on with the trial, saying he felt perfectly safe in the hands of a Memphis judge in a mandamus case; but the ondholding creditors, not feeling so safe on that basis, asked for and were granted a con-tinuance. LANDING IMPROVEMENT. The committee on rip-rap stone constract reported in the London proposition that the proposition could not be entertained, all contracts having to be done by contract and advertising in the papers. The committee recommended that an advertisement be published asking for bids, etc. EXCAVATING FOR SEWERS.

The question of letting out the sewer excavation by contract was discussed.

Colonel Waring objected to letting out the sewerage by contract. He stated that it could be done cheaper if the city employed the labor. Mr. Metcalf, his chief engineer, would have a general supervision of the work, while Major Humphreys would have charge of the working force. The work would be methodically divided with a view to facility. The work of excavating, putting down pipe, filing up, etc., would follow rapidly. The work of laying the tile drains would be put in competent hands and placed under the supervision of a man who had experience in the bisiness. All the necessary levels had been made in the Hermany survey of the city but other of the city, but other engineering work will have to be done as the sewerage progresses. The work can be commenced at once on the main sewer, which will follow the bayou to the river and outlet.

Those who purchase the road and its franchises will do so with the knowledge that such suits can be brought against them.

Commendation from many of the first gentlemen of Nashville. The author of the new map is Colonel J. B. Killebrew, the distinguished chief of our State bureau of agriculture. ture, statistics and mines, whose laborious life in developing the vast resources of Ten-nessee has carried him into every nook and grotte of the State, and whose map is pronounced by competent judges to be the most complete and satisfactory one ever made.
